NOTES.

When in 1893 the writer of these notes published a volume of the parish registers for the period 1701-1812 he had to lament that there is a large gap in the MSS. at Burnsall, and that owing to the fees charged at York he was unable at the time to have any transcripts copied that might be found there. The present book contains, he is happy to say, all that was missing, excepting the record of a single year, 1753, of which no trace can be found. His success in recovering so much, encouraged him to make a search for the transcripts of the smaller portions which have disappeared from the register of the earlier period, 1559-1700. The results of this search will also be found in the pages which follow, and the procedure described will account for the order, or disorder, in which they have been printed. The 18th century transcripts were copied by the Rev. W. Ball Wright, M.A., the others by Mr. R. B. Cook. There still remain unrecovered, and it is feared unrecoverable :—

18 entries of baptisms on the first page in the year 1559, which have been rubbed out with the exception of a word or two.

From Midsummer, 1569, to Midsummer, 1570.

From Lady Day, 1673, to the end of December.

In 1684 all the weddings and baptisms, and the burials till Aug. 8th.

From Lady Day, 1696, to Lady Day, 1697.

From Lady Day, 1699, till October 15th.

From Lady Day, 1753, to Lady Day, 1754.

All the monumental inscriptions in the Church and Churchyard have been copied, and those of them which bear dates earlier than 1813 are printed in this book.

There will also be found in it the marriages of Burnsall people which have appeared in those Yorkshire registers which have been printed, together with a few entries which have been kindly sent to the writer by his neighbours and correspondents.

For the extracts from Paver's Marriages Licencees, which have been printed by the Yorkshire Archaeological Society in their Journal and Record Series, he is under obligations to that society, and in particular to his friend, Mr. J. W. Clay, F.S.A.

During the twenty-four years of his residence at Burnsall the writer has found out a good deal more about former rectors than he was able to publish in a list he gave of them in an earlier volume. The said list was to a great extent borrowed from that given in Whitaker's History of Craven, with a few corrections supplied by the late Canon Raine. Dr. Whitaker seems to have relied for the earlier portion of his lists on Torre's MSS., and did not always copy from his authority correctly. And Torre although accurate is not infallible.

Whitaker says that Henr. & Adam Personae de Brinshale occur in the Coucher Book of Fountains Abbey without date.

In the Chartulary of Fountains (vol. i., p. 133) Richard p'son, of Brynneshall, appears as witness to an undated deed, probably about 1200.

RECTORS OF THE ONE MEDIETY.

JOHN DE KIRKBY.—In 1867 the Surtees Society published a transcript of the Survey of the County of York by John de Kirkby temp. Edw. I., commonly known as Kirkby's Inquest. The book was edited by Mr. H. Skaife, and what follows is extracted from the preface to his work. John de Kirkby was of an ancient Leicestershire family, which took its name from Kirkby Belers in that county. He was the eldest son of Sir William de Kirkby, of Melton Mowbray, by his wife Emma de Gorham. The date of his birth is not known. In 1265 he became Dean of Wimborne Minster, and for two months in 1268 held the living of Thorpe, near Newark. In 1270 he was presented to Burnsall. In 1272 he was Archdeacon of Coventry; in 1278 Rector of St. Berians, in Cornwall. In 1279 he was collated to a prebend at York, which had been held by Cardinal Hugh de Evesham. In 1280 Archbishop Wickwaine directed that "dominus J. de Kirkeby regis clericus familiaris" should not have his benefices sequestered. On several occasions he was entrusted with the custody of the Great Seal. In 1283, being then Archdeacon of Coventry, he was elected Bishop of Rochester, but renounced his right in the same year. In that year also he was appointed Lord Treasurer, and held the office till his death. In 1286 he was elected to the bishopric of Ely. At this time he was only in deacon's orders. On Sept. 21 he was ordained priest, and consecrated on the day following by the Primate, John de Peckham, at Canterbury. He died at Ely on Palm Sunday, 1290, and was buried in his cathedral church "coram cruce ex parte boreali chori ante altare Sancti Johannis Baptistae." He died seized of lands in the counties of Leicester, Middlesex, Herts, Cambridge, Northants, Southants, Bedford, Huntingdon, and Lincoln. His next heir was his brother, Sir William de Kirkby, then about 30 years old.

In Abp. Giffard's Register (Surtees Soc., vol. 109) is the following:—8 May, 1270. London. Presentation of John de Kyrkeby, clk. to a moiety of the church of Brinsale in Craven by dom. Robert de Neville. Letter of Inquisition.

JOHN FITZ HENRY.—It is not known at what date Kirkby ceased to be Rector of Burnsall, but it would seem that he had resigned at any rate before 26th Aug., 1286, for on that date there is an entry in the register of Archbishop Romanus that "Dns. John filius Henry rect. med. eccles. de Brunsale" had to answer for non-residence.

ADAM DE HERWERTON.—There are two notices of this rector in the register of Abp. Romanus. 17 Jan. 1294-5. Bishop Burton. Institution "nomine custodie sequestri" till next ordination of Adam de Herwerton, acolyte, to the church of Brinsale. 24 Feb., 1294-5, Adam de Herwerton, sub-deacon, instituted to a moiety on the presentation of Sir Hugh, son of Henry, kn. According to Torre he vacated his benefice by his death.

WILLIAM DE BULLMER.—23rd May, 1309. clerk; presented by Henry, 1st Baron FitzHugh; died (Torre).

JOHN DE BOWES.—7th Jan., 1322-3. priest; presented by Henry, 1st Baron FitzHugh; died (Torre). Abp. Thoresby's Reg. 29th Nov., 1369. Mem. quod Joh'es de Bowes Rector Medietatis ecclesie de Brinsall quia est tanquam corporis infirmitate detentus quod pro cura medicorum querenda oportet eum a dicta medietate sua ad tempus absentare & habuit licentiam absentandi se a dicta medietate sua per unum annum & non comparendi in sinodis preterdum tamen per procuratorem sufficientem compareat in eisdem. Ita eciam quod dicta medietas delictis non defraudatur obsequiis nec animarum cura in ea negligatur & quod dividat procuracionem in eadem & quod interim faciat domos & clausuras dicte medietatis debite reparari & unam marcam suis parochianis pauperibus erogari, alioquin quod licentia nullius penitus sit vigoris (fol. 156, d.). In 1337 John de Bowes, p'son of B., is said to have given to Henry de Hertlington and Agnes his wife half the manor of Nunwick.

ADAM DE CARLETON IN LYNDRICKE.—Abp. Thoresby's Reg. 13th Mar., 1369-70. Institution of Adam de Carleton in Lyndricke, priest, on the presentation of Henry [2nd Baron] FitzHugh to a moiety of the church of Brinsall, vacant by the death of Sir John de Boghes, the last Rector, &c. (fol. 157 d.) 1st Oct., 1371. Mem. quod Dns. Adam de Carleton Rector medietatis ecclesie de Brinsall habuit licentiam absentandi se a dicta medietate sua per biennium consideracione domini Henrici FitzHugh militis obsequiis interim insistendo cum clausa proviso quod faciat domos Rectorie sue infra dictum tempus congrue reparari & quod faciat erogari pauperibus parochie sue prout ipsius in hac parte suppeditent facultates (fol. 162).

JOHN DE LATON.—p. assignat. alterius benef. (Torre). Mr. R. B. Cook notes that in cases where Torre states that a man has resigned for another benefice it nearly always turns out that there was an exchange with the man whose name follows in the list. It would seem in some cases that there may have been no institution before the exchange was made and this would account for the fact that no record of it is forthcoming. Whitaker reads the word in Torre's MS., which has been copied for the writer "assignat," as "assumpt."

THOMAS DE HUDE.—26th Apr., 1392, priest; pres. by the attorneys of Henry, 3rd Baron FitzHugh; resigned (Torre).

WILLIAM APPILTON.—19th Apr., 1411, priest; pres. by Henry, 3rd Baron FitzHugh; resigned for the vicarage of Brun (Torre).

WILLIAM GREGGES.—16th Oct., 1425; resigned for the vicarage of Salt Fleetby (Torre).

HENRY CRAVEN.—2nd May, 1426; pres. by William, 4th Baron FitzHugh; resigned (Torre).

THOMAS KIRKHAM.—22nd July, 1438; capellanus; pres. by William, 4th Baron FitzHugh; died (Torre). His will is dated 24th April, 1454, and was proved 16th Aug. following. He is to be buried in the high choir of the church of St. Helen in Staynegate in York. He bequeathes 6 lbs. of wax for his burial to burn about his body, and 2 torches of the value of 10s. to the high altar of the said church to be carried before his body at his burial. To the Vicar of the said church 12d., and to every other chaplain of the same 4d. To his parish clerk 6d. To each order of the friars mendicant in York 5s. To the use of the church of Byrnesall one vestment of blue (blodio) if it seem expedient to his executors, but not otherwise. To the church of St. Margaret, Walmgate, York, his second best sacerdotal vestment. To the Guild of St. Christopher, York, 3s. 4d., to that of Blessed Mary and St. Martin 3s. 4d., and to the friars of the house of St. Robert of Knaresborough 3s. 4d. To Thomas Cotes his best piece of silver and cover. To Agnes, the wife of Thomas Cotes, 6 silver spoons and 6 best cushions. To his servant Margaret 1 mazer and the bed in which he lay in the time of his infirmity. Residue to Thomas Cotes, who with Margaret are made executors (Reg. Test. Ebor. II. 298 in latin).

ROBERT COKK.—2nd May, 1454; priest; pres. by Henry, 5th Baron FitzHugh; died (Torre). His will is dated 21st Apr., 1469, and was proved before the Dean of Craven on May 31st. He leaves his soul to God, Blessed Mary & All Sts. & body to be buried in church of St. Wilfrid of Burnsall and his best beast (averium) with saddle and bridle as mortuary. To buy a portiforium for the church at Burnsall 66s. 8d. For 4 trentals of St. Gregory's mass to be said for his soul 26s. 8d. To repair a glass window near his mother's tomb 20s. To buy a structure for the vestments of the said church. 8s. To the fabric of St. Peter's, York, 3s. 4d. To the 4 orders of mendicant friars 6s. 8d., viz., to each order 20d. To the friars of St. Robert of Knaresborough, 20d. To the fraternity of St. Anthony 12d., to that of St. Thomas of Rome 12d. To every godechild "de sacro fonte levato" 12d. To Willm. Vavasoure Rector of a mediety of the said church 6s. 8d., Henry Burnsall chaplain, John Wilkynson chaplain, Henry Thornberg chaplain each 20d. Richd. Burnsall chaplain his green gown, Willm. Thornberg chaplain his surplice, John Dyghton Vicar of Kirkbymaloughdale 6s. 8d., John Philipp canon there 20d., Hen. Thomlynson chaplain 20d. To his father John Coke 20 marks "de optimis averiis." To the children of Robert Spenser 30 sheep, to those of Willm. Nunfrey 30 sheep, to those of Willm. Holme 30 sheep, to those of Ric. Wyndeson 30 sheep. To his servant Alice 1 cow and all the sheep in her mother's hands. To Willm. Burgh 1 mare with foal & 2 cattle (boves). To Willm. Lawson a good trotting mare & to Ric. Elys a 2 yrs. old mare. To his servant Elizabeth 1 ram, to John Parkill, 13s. 4d., Willm. Holme 13s. 4d., Ric. Banks his best bronze dish. Residue to John Parkill & Wm. Holme whom he makes executors and Ric. Banks supervisor. Witnesses: Dns. Peter Toller Rector of Mediety of Lynton, Dns. John Dytton Vicar of Kirkbymaloughdale, John Cuke, Robt. Spenser, Wm. Nonfrere (Reg. Test. Ebor., IV. 133, in latin).

THOMAS SUTTON.—14th May, 1469; ? M.A.; pres. by Henry, 5th Baron FitzHugh; resigned (Torre).

EDWARD PUDSEY.—9th Jan., 1471-2; capellanus; pres. by Henry, 5th Baron FitzHugh; died (Torre).

THOMAS SWYFT.—5th July, 1505; priest; pres. by Sir Henry Willoughby (Torre). The will of Sir Thomas Swifte, Rector of Wickersley and Burnsall, is dated 8th Feb., 1524, and was proved on the 23rd Feb. of that year (Dio. Reg. vol. 27 (Wolsey), fol. 157). Exordium "I Sir Thomas Swifte preist as a true Cristen man fast in the faithe of Criste and his church, make my Will &c. prest, Sir Richard Bradshaw, Scole maister, John Greene and Thomas Swifte, my servant Alexander Levesay with other. Probate granted to exors.

WILLIAM HEGHFELD.—Vacated benefice by death (Torre).

ANTHONY HOLGATE.—31st July, 1539; capellanus; pres. by John Lambert, of Calton; deprived (Torre). Holgate was married and very likely owed his deprivation to the fact.

RICHARD SOMERSCALES.—10th Sept., 1554; pres. by John Lambert, of Calton (Torre). He was instituted on the deprivation of Holgate, and in 1559 was in turn dispossessed when Holgate was restored to the benefice. (The Elizabethan Clergy and the Settlement of Religion 1558-64, by the Rev. Henry Gee, D.D.)

ANTHONY HOLGATE (restored).—1559; institution after deprivation; Ant. Holgate, Burnsall (Gee). The parish register contains the entry of the baptism of a daughter Susan in 1561, and it is quite possible that Ellen, Margaret, Isabel and Anne Holgate, who were married in 1565, 1576, 1578, and 1586, may all have been his children. At the time of his death he was Dean of Craven. He was buried at Burnsall 3rd May, 1569, and administration of his goods was granted to Isabella Holgate, his relict, and Robert Holgate, his son, 27th May, 1570. (Reg. Test. Ebor., vol. 30, fol. 80.)

HUMPHRY DODGSON.—24th May, 1570; presented by John Lambert; resigned (Torre). Humfray Dodgson, clerke, married Issabell Holgaite 30th December, 1578. He was buried at Burnsall 31st Aug., 1588, and his widow 17th Feb., 1594-5.

BENJAMIN HOLGATE.—6th Nov., 1582; clerk; presented by John Lambert on the resignation of Humphry Dodgson (Raine). It is not unlikely that he may have been the son of Anthony Holgate and the brother-in-law of his immediate predecessor. He had a family:—Nathaniel, Bezaleel, Damaris, Rebecca, Sarah, Anne and Martha. He was buried at Burnsall 20th June, 1596.

JOHN TOPHAN.—29th July, 1596; presented by John Lambert of Calton, Esquire, on the death of Benjamin Holgate (Raine). He was, there is no doubt, the same John Tophan, of Cracoe, who, taking orders in 1568, served the chapel at Rilston. A successor appears there for the first time in 1597. He seems to have been Dean of Craven in 1599. He held his benefice at the time when Sir William Craven built the School and repaired the Church. He was buried at Burnsall 30th Jan., 1618-9. His will was dated 31st December, 1618. To be buried in the chancel of the Parish Church. To Henrie Tophan of Cracoe and Thomas his son a grange meadows etc. at West Dolmehouse in Nidderdale, he to grant a lease to Xtofer Tophan and John his son at the rent of £12. To Henry Tophan all the interest of 6 cattlegates in Coweside and Hardflaske in the l*ad*. ship of Darnbrook. To John Tophan of Hetton clerk B.A. and to John his son all my copie hold (2 large and long pages of legacies of lands). To my cosen Eliz. Burton wief of George Burton, to Thomazin Wilkinson, to Henry, Jane and Susan Tophan John Tophan's wief each an 11/- piece of gold. To Mr. Bland a Jacobus peece of gold desiring him to make a sermon at my buriall. To Laurence Layland my workeday hatt my jerkin my workeday dublett and breeches with a paire of my stockings and shoes. To George Burton my best cloak. To Mr. Tophan my mourning cloake, my worst black cloake and both my gownes. To Rich. Wilkinson younger my worst cloak. The rest to George Burton's seven children (John excepted). (Reg. Test. Ebor. vol. 31, fol. 200.)

THOMAS TOPHAN, M.A.—6th Mar., 1618-9; clerk; presented by Thomas Tophan senior of Craeoe co. York yeoman on the death of John Tophan (Raine). Thomas Tophan was appointed master of the Graminar School at Burnsall on the resignation of the first master Laurence Tayler in 1608. The legacies in the will of John Tophan leave no doubt that he was the nephew of his predecessor and the son of the man who presented him to the living by Isabel Morville his wife. He gave up his post of schoolmaster on being presented to a mediety of the adjoining rectory of Linton in 1615. He married in 1619 Martha Hoyle. He died 11th Jan. 1651-2 and was buried at Linton. His will is dated 22nd Apr., 1645, and was proved at Westminster 1st July, 1654. Body to be buried either at Linton or Burnsall at whether place it falleth in the Chancel of the Parish Church. To son Tymothy Tophan half mansion house at Greston, Beckside, hemp garth, etc., and all my ground above and below Linton Bridge as well as my lime kiln lands. To daughters Dorothy, Peace and Martha goods at Greston Hall except the seeling in the great chamber which I give to Timothy. To said daughters all goods at Lynton (except a steel bow to nephew John Tophan of Crecow) all goods at Burnsall parsonage the lower ground and half mansion house at Greston and the silver cameo pledged to me for £4 belonging to my brother William Hoyle if he does not loose it. To daughter Peace four gates in Thorpe and gate and a half in Cale she paying to James Simpson £14 at St. James's Day. To the poor at my interment 1*d*. and 2*d*. each. To sarvant Will. Bumble 10 -. Commend tuition of four children to Mr. Christopher Lancaster and John Tophan whom I make exors. (P.C.C. 154 Alebin).

CHRISTOPHER LANCASTER.—On the death of Thomas Tophan the mediety he held of the Burnsall rectory fell to Christopher Lancaster, but by what process he was appointed to it the writer has not been able to find out. Lancaster was from 1642 to 1648, and perhaps longer, Rector of Bolton by Bolland, and 12th June, 1642, married at Linton Mary Tophan, the daughter of his predecessor. He had at least eight children, one of whom, Christopher (1644-82), buried at Burnsall, was Vicar of Aysgarth. He is said to have resigned the living in or about 1689, and he was buried at Burnsall 30th Dec., 1694 (Abp. Sharp's MSS., Paver's Licences, the registers of Burnsall, Linton, and Bolton).

PETER ALCOCK.—1689; pres. by John Alcock (Abp. Sharp's MSS.).—Peter Alcock was the son of Peter Alcock of Burnsall (d. 1677), and the patron was his brother John (1645-1715). He was christened at Burnsall 6th Aug., 1658, and buried there 4th June, 1707. He married 9th Aug., 1683, Ellen Lancaster, the daughter of his predecessor. They had a family of five children, of whom the two sons, Peter and John, were in turn rectors. His widow presented to the living in 1733.

THOMAS CLAPHAM.—10th July, 1707; clerk; pres. by John Alcock, gen., on the death of Peter Alcock, clerk (Abps' Institution Books). Thomas Clapham, B.A., Camb., was school-master 1694-8, and Thomas Clapham, of Bradford, clerk, arbitrated in a parish dispute in 1707. These may be all the same person. As regards the rectory he seems to have served as a "warning pan," as he resigned a year after his appointment.

PETER ALCOCK.—20th Sept., 1708; clerk: pres. by John Alcock, gen., on the resignation of Thomas Clapham, clerk (Abps.' Institution Books). Peter Alcock, student of Pembroke Hall, Camb., was elected schoolmaster in 1703, and probably held the post until his brother John was appointed to it in 1719. He was born 24th, christened 27th June, 1654; married 9th July, 1721, Mary, daughter of John Barker, of Pereival Hall, and was buried at Burnsall 10th Oct., 1733. His will is dated 24th Sept., 1733, and was proved 20th Nov. in that year. To be buried in my Chancel according to the Rubrick of the Ch. of Eng. As to the next presentation of the One Rectory of Burnsall I give it to my Dear Mother Ellen Alcock hoping she will give it to my Dear Brother John Alcock gratis & that he after Induction will not suffer my wife & child to live like Orphans but will allow them the Glebe land house & barn & some little perquisite for a small living. As for the perpetual Advowson I leave it to my son John & his heirs for ever but if he die without Issue then to my Brother John & his heirs for ever. If my brother's kind allowance will not support my wife & child I empower them to borrow money on the Advowson. If my son John live till my Brother resign to him which we hope will be at 24 years of age a year after Induction I order him to pay my wife his mother £15 a year or it shall be lawful for her to seize upon the Advowson upon neglect of payment. As to my Bills & Bonds Quick Goods Hay & Straw Husbandry Gear & all Household goods I leave them to my wife and son John & I appoint them joint exors. and my wife trustee over my child as long as she continues my wife. As for the little money I owe the School & my mother I order the Advowson to pay it. I not only empower my wife & son to borrow money on the Adv. but to sell it if necessity urge them, but I wish they may live without incumbrance on it & take up money on it for his education. Lastly considering my Brother will be very old when he resigns I appoint my son to allow him £15 a year during his life. (Abp's Dioc. Reg., vol. 35, fol. 132).

JOHN ALCOCK, M.A.—6th Dec., 1733; pres. by Ellen Alcock widow, on the death of Peter Alcock (Raine). He was christened at Burnsall 10th Mar., 1692, and was married. His son Christopher (1732-82) was in orders. In 1719 John Alcock, B.A., Jesus College, Camb., was elected schoolmaster, a post he seems to have relinquished on his appointment to the living. His licence was granted 1728. From 1716 till 1744 the name of John Alcock appears regularly in the register of the parish of Linton as serving there, and 9th Sept., 1725, John Alcock, M.A., is licenced to perform the office of curate there at the yearly stipend of £25. In 1743, in answer to the visitation questions issued by Archbishop Herring, he says "I do reside personally upon my Cure but not in the Parsonage House because the Widow & the Son of the late Rector live there." He resigned the living 7th June, 1753 (Raine), and he was buried at Burnsall 8th July, 1760. On 17th Feb., 1761, administration of goods, &c., of the Rev. John Alcock, clerk, Vicar of Otley, was granted to Ann Alcock widow and relict. This may or may not be the same man. John Alcock, of Burnsall, had two daughters; the elder of whom, Ann, died in 1790, and the younger, Ellen, married John Batty, of Thorpe. They had an only child, Elizabeth, who married the Rev. Henry Wigglesworth, Vicar of Slaidburn.

JOHN ALCOCK, B.A.—18th June, 1753; pres. by Rebecca and Dorothy Heber, of Marton, spinsters, on the resignation of John Alcock (Raine). He was the son of Peter Alcock and Mary, daughter of John Barker. The date of his birth is uncertain, but his parents were married in 1721, and had a child, Mary, who was born and died in the following year. He was buried at Burnsall 25th Nov., 1810, having resigned the living some time before. He is described as of "Highhoil." John Alcock was licenced to the curacy of Burnsall at £30 a year, to be paid to him by John Alcock, the Rector, 25th May, 1752 (Dio. Institution Books).

RICHARD WITHNELL.—28th March, 1810. Richard Withnell, clerk, instituted on commission by John Perrin, clerk, M.A., Vicar of Skipton, to mediety of the rectory of Burnsall, vacant by the cession of John Alcock, clerk, on the presentation of Robinson Chippendale, of Skipton (Abps.' Institution Books). He was for many years assistant curate at Skipton. His name first appears in the register there in 1771. He is described as the son of Thomas Withnell, of Whittle-le-Woods, co. Lanes., and he married Esther, dau. of William Chippendale, of Skipton, mercer, 1st Apr., 1784. The baptisms of four daughters are recorded in the register there.

JOHN BAINES GRAHAM, M.A.—1st Feb., 1832; clerk; instituted on his own presentation on the death of Richard Withnell (Abps' Institution Books). He resigned.

GREGORY RHODES.—16th Feb., 1838; pres. by the Revd. J. B. Graham. He resigned.

WILLIAM BURY, M.A.—14th Feb., 1839; clerk; pres. by the Revd. J. B. Graham. He died 10th Feb., 1875, and was buried at Coniston.

CAPEL WOLSELEY, B.A.—27th Nov., 1875; clerk; pres. by Susan and Mary Graham, spinsters. He resigned. He was of T. C. D., and later was Rector of Sacred Trinity, Salford.

HENRY THEODORE CAVELL.—3rd May, 1876; pres. by Susan and Mary Graham, spinsters. He resigned, was of St. Bees, and later Vicar of Gresley, Lichfield.

RECTORS OF THE OTHER MEDIETY.

WILLIAM DE REDDEMERE.—In Archbishop Gray's Register (Surtees Soc., vol. 56) is the following: Otinton, 6 July, 1228. Institution of Wm. de Reddemere, clerk, to the church of Brunnestal (? Brunnescal) at the presentation of Wm. de Hebbeden.

RICHARD DE KNOLLE.—The following notices occur in the registries of the archbishops: Abp. Giffard's Reg. (Surtees' Soc., vol. 109), 28 Apr. 1270. Caveat by Adam de Sutton proctor of Hugh de Neuton against the archbishop appointing anyone to a moiety of the church of Brineshale as William de Ebor the patron had bound himself as soon as there was an opportunity to confer an ecclesiastical benefice on the said Hugh. 29 Apr., 1270, Presentation of John Sampson to the church of Brineshal by dom. Elyas de Rilleston. Letter of Inquisition. 8 May, 1220, Presentation of Richard de Knolle to a moiety of the church of Brineshale by Will. fil. Nich. de Ebor. Letter of Inquisition. Abp. Romanus's Reg. 28 Aug. 1286 Ric. de Knol rector of Burnsall is summoned to show his dispensation for holding more than one benefice. William de Ebor and his kinsman Elias de Rilleston had a lawsuit about the patronage which was settled in 1273 in favour of the former. If Sampson was ever instituted to the benefice he must have given place very shortly to Richard de Knolle.

ADAM DE LINCOLN.—Abp. Romanus's Reg. has the following: 12th Nov., 1294, Bishop Burton. Mandate to induct "nomine custodie sequestri" until the ordination before Xmas, Adam de Lincoln clk. into the church of Brinsale on the presentation of William de Eboraco. 18 Dec. Beverley. Institution of Adam de Lincoln subdeacon to a moiety of the church of Brinsale. In the Calendar of Patent Rolls 28 Edw. I., A.D. 1300, p. 552, it is said that Adam de Lincoln p'son of Burnsall hunted with Hugh de

Swynlington p'son of Linton in the free chase of John de Mowbray of Nydderdale and carried away deer. He made his will on the feast of St. Valentine, 1347-8, and it was proved on the Lady Day following. He left his soul to God and blessed Marie and his body to be buried in the choir of the church at Brinsal and all his goods "Agneti uxori Will'i Clerici de Brinsal et omnibus filiis suis videlicet Thome, Henrico, & Johanni" (Reg. of Abp. Zouche, 1340-53, fol. 324, in latin.)

HUGO HOWELL.—12th Apr., 1348; capellanus; pres. by Sir Richard de Hebden; died (Torre).

WILLIAM DE HEBDEN.—28th Aug., 1367; pres. by Sir Richard de Hebden; died (Torre).

WILLIAM ALMOTE.—Abp. Thoresby's Reg., 13th June, 1369, Institution of William Almot, priest, on presentation of Sir Richard de Hebden, knight, to a mediety of the parish church of Brinsale, vacant by the death of Master William de Hebden, last Rector thereof (Archd. York, fol. 152 d.). 24th Aug., 1370. Sir William Almot had licence absentandi se from the said church per triennium monasteria trahentis infra regnum Anglie & dimittendi fructus ad firmam & non comparendi in Synodis dumtamen per procuratorem, &c., cum omnibus clausulis (Archd. Nottm. fol. 272 d.)

WILLIAM DE BEKNYGHAM.—Abp. Thoresby's Reg., 27th Feb., 1370-1. William de Bekyngham, priest, exchanged livings with William de Kirkesall, Vicar of Edenstowe. There is nothing to show that he was ever instituted to Burnsall. He later, 18th Aug., 1375, exchanged the vicarage of Edenstowe for that of Askham Richard (Abp. Alex. Neville's Reg.).

WILLIAM DE KIRKESALL.—Abp. Thoresby's Reg., 27th Feb., 1370-1. Institution of William de Kirkesall, priest, on presentation of Sir Richard de Hebden, knight, to a mediety of the church of Brinsall quam dns. Wills. de Bekyngham primitus optinuit per resignacionem ejusdem ex causa permutationis facte cum vicario ecclesie de Edenstowe quam tu (Kirkesall) primitus optinuisti (Archd. York, fol. 160 d.). 17th Sept., 1371. Mem. quod Dns. Wills. Kirkesall, Rector medietatis ecclesie de Brinsall habuit licentiam absentandi se a dieta medietate sua per triennium in forma consueta cum clausulis necessariis & consuetis (fol. 162).

JOHN DE SUTHWELL.—The living was vacant by his death (Torre).

THOMAS NEWSOME.—9th Jan., 1389-90; clerk; presented by William de Newsome (Torre).

JOHN GRYNTOX.—The living was vacant by his death (Torre).

WILLIAM VAVASOUR.—10th Dec., 1431; priest; presented by John Hebden, Esquire (Torre). His will is dated 9th Jan.,

1471-2, and it was proved on the 4th Feb. following. He leaves his Soul to God Almighty Blessed Mary and All Saints and his body to be buried in the Choir of the parish church of Burnsall. To the fabric of the Cathedral of Blessed Peter York 12d. To the fraternity of St. Robert 2s. to that of St. Anthony 12d. To the Carmelite Friars of York 6s. 8d. & to each of the other 5s. To Dns. Henry Burnsall chaplain 20d. Dns. John Wilkynson 20d. Dns. Henry Tronburgh 20d. Dns. Ric. Burnsall 20d. the parish clerk 6d. Dns. Henry Burnsall for 1 years salary £4. Agnes Flyntt 6s. 8d. & a cow, his other servants 3s. 4d. each. Residue to his executors Henry Bekwith, Richard Vavasour & Henry Vavasour by the Supervision & assent of John Vavasour of Newton & Willm. Vavasour of Thornton. Witnesses: Dns. Peter Toller & others (not named) (Reg. Test. Ebor. IV. 174 in latin).

RALPH REDCLYFFE.—5th July, 1472; clerk; presented by Sir Roger Clifford and Thomas Tempest, Esq. (Torre).

ROBERT TALBOT.—Priest; vacated the living by death (Torre). Whitaker says, on the authority of the Townley MSS. that his brother Edmund Talbot, of Bashal, Esq., bequeathed him an annuity of 26s. 8d. for life by the name of Sir Robert Talbot, Parson of Burnsall (1519-20), 11 Hen. VIII. John Talbot, who left his body to be buried in the church at Burnsall in 1475 (Reg. Test. Ebor. vol. IV. 102) is said by Whitaker to be another brother, but in Foster's Yorkshire Pedigrees he appears as the uncle of Edmund.

NICHOLAS PAVER, M.A.—13th Jan., 1545-6; pres. by the Assigns of Sir Richard Tempest; died (Torre). Whitaker gives a rector of the same name in his list of the rectors of Linton, who is said to have died at the same time. He may be the same man and may have held both livings.

GEORGE ELLYSON, M.A.—25th Sept., 1551; on the death of Nich. Paver (Abps. Holgate and Heath, Reg., vol. 29 45); on the pres. of the Assigns of Sir Richard Tempest (Torre, who gives him the degree of S.T.B.). George Ellisson, M.A., elected Master of University College, Oxford, 30th Nov., 1551, was instituted to the vicarage of Arncliffe 19th Oct., 1552, on the presentation of the College (Abps. Holgate and Heath, Reg. 29 48). He died in 1557 (cf University College, by William Carr, M.A.) The dates of his degrees are B.A. 22nd March, 1542-3; M.A., 1545 (Foster's Alumni Oxonienses, p. 459).

HENRY ELSON.—21st June, 1557; clerk; pres. by Sir John Tempest, knt. (Torre, who gives the date wrongly as 1552), on the death of George Ellisson (Holgate and Heath Reg. vol. 29 122). He was buried at Burnsall 14th Oct., 1563. His will is dated 12th Oct. in that year. Soul to God my Maker & Redeemer. Body to be buried in the Church at Burnsall in such place as shall be deemed convenient. Forgive Anthony Younge xx^s owing trusting him to be good to my brother Peter, also give him a brown colve. To each of his children not married one shepe. To my brother William one young oxe and to each of his children one sheepe and to Agnes his wyfe a short violet gowne. To my brother Peter's wyfe my best violet gowne and to each of his children a sheape. To Sir Anthony Holgaite Dean of Craven one sheape. Half quarter of barley to the poorest of the parish against Xremas next and the same against seed time next year. Also one quarter of haver against next seed time to the poorest that soweth corn. Residue after payment of debts etc. to my brother Peter whom I make exor. (Reg. Test Ebor. vol. 30, fol. 35).

THOMAS BROGDEN, B.A.—12th July, 1569; student in the Academy of Cambridge; pres. by William Byenam, of the City of York gent, patron of the mediety of the rectory of Burnsall in Craven, vacant by the death of the last incumbent. (Abps' Institution Books) Canon Raine added B.A. to the name in the list I sent him. He resigned the living.

WILLIAM BROGDEN OR BROCKDEN.—5th May, 1579; clerk; pres. by James Brockden, of Stoke, co. York, yeoman, on the resignation of Thomas Brogden (Raine). He was buried at Burnsall 31st August, 1619. His will is dated 30th August, 1619, and it was proved on the 10th March following. It is very long, and there is nothing of special interest. He is to be buried in the chancel of Burnsall parish church under a long stone lying there partly before his accustomed seat. His sister's daughter is the widow of Sampson Kidd, and they have seven children. His sister Alice, being old and impotent, receives an annuity of £3 for her life. He leaves to his successors a piece of land he bought on which to build a tithe barn for Appletreewick if they build the barn with reversion to Robert Craven if they don't. Mentions nephew Henry Brogden, Anthony Johnson, sister's son. Leaves 40s. to the poor of the parish, his books to Thomas and John Waite, £5 forgiven to Richard Tennant, 6s. 8d. left to Mr. Tophan, 10s. to Mr. Tennant to make a sermon at his burial. It would seem that he was unmarried. (Abps' Registers, vol. 31, fol. 202).

RICHARD TENANT, M.A.—31st August, 1619, clerk; pres. by Henry Tenant, of Mawaterhouses, co. York, yeoman, on the death of William Brogden (Raine). He married at Rilston 13th June, 1637, Isabel Walker, and she may have been a second wife, as Mary, wife of Richard Tenant, clerk, was buried at Burnsall 2nd May, 1635. This is not however certain, as at this time there was living at Burnsall another Richard Tenant, clerk, who may have been his nephew and who outlived the rector by some 22 years. It is likely that the former of the two is the subject of the notice in the Royalist Composition Papers (Yorks. Arch. Soc. Record Series, vol. xviii., p. 211), No. 286: Richard Tenant of Burnesall, clerke, G. 212, p. 731, Report—His delinquency that he did assist the forces raised against Parliament; he is seized in fee of the moiety of Rectory impropriate of Kettlewell of the yearly value of 14^{li}, 29 May, 1649—Jo. Readinge, D. Watkins. Fine at a third 70^h 2 June, 1649 (G. G, p. 87). If it was the parson who was involved in these proceedings he may have been trying to escape from trouble to come in allowing himself to be elected schoolmaster at Christmas, 1552. He was buried at Burnsall 15th May, 1553.

JAMES TENANT.—He succeeded his brother, but how he was appointed does not appear (Abp. Sharp's MSS.). He was married, and the baptisms of two sons and four daughters are recorded in the parish register—one of the latter with the unusual name of Zervia in 1662. The eldest of the children, Richard, christened 18th June, 1648, may well have been the second Richard mentioned above, who was buried 14th March, 1675-6. It is believed that James Tenant kept a school at Burnsall, and during vacancies he several times supplied the place of master of the Grammar School. He was in orders before becoming rector. He was buried at Burnsall 4th Sept., 1686.

RICHARD CARR, B.A.—3rd Feb., 1686-7; clerk, pres. by Sir William Craven, knight, on the death of James Tenant, clerk (Dean & Chapter's Vacancy Act Book, fol. 26). Richard Carr was of the family of Carr of Stackhouse, and there is a large pedigree in Foster's "Yorkshire Pedigrees" which does not agree with the more modern one in Burke's "Landed Gentry." He was a non-juror and resigned his living, and is said to have practised medicine in London. He is described in the will of his brother Thomas in 1706 as Richard Carr of London, clerk, and the terms of a bequest to him suggest that he was in narrow circumstances. Burke puts the date of his death at 1723. Foster says that he was born in 1655 and was M.A. of Peterhouse, Cambridge.

ROBERT TOPHAM.—1689; pres. by Sir William Craven, knight (Abp. Sharp's MSS.); buried at Burnsall 9th Apr., 1690.

RICHARD CARR.—1690; pres. by Sir William Craven, knight (Abp. Sharp's MSS.); buried at Burnsall 14th August, 1734. Administration of all goods, &c., was granted to William Carr, clerk, son of the deceased (Anne Carr, the widow, and Elizabeth, wife of Richard Stackhouse, Mary Carr, Anne Carr, and Richard Carr, children, renouncing), 6th March, 1734-5 (Abps' Dio. Reg., vol. 35, fol. 151). That this gentleman was of the Stackhouse family is fairly certain, but the connexion is not made out.

WILLIAM CARR, M.A.—28th August, 1734; pres. by William, 3rd Baron Craven, on the death of Richard Carr. He was the son of his predecessor. He was christened at Burnsall 26th August, 1697; educated at Threshfield School, and from there proceeded to St. John's College, Cambridge, where at the age of 15 he was admitted sizar for Mr. Simpson; tutor and surety Mr. Anstey; 19th June, 1713; B.A. 1717; M.A. 1721. In 1743 he states in answer to Archbp. Herring's visitation questions that he commonly resides one week in four at the Parsonage House (at Burnsall) and the rest of his time at his curacy of Holbeck, in the parish of Leeds, and that he has a residing curate who lodges in the Parsonage House, and to whom he allows £30 a year. He was buried at Burnsall 6th August, 1754. His will is dated 24th Jan., 1754, and was proved 10th Oct. in that year. To my 3 sisters Elizabeth, Mary and Ann £140 in trust to pay interest for maintenance of brother Richard for life, at his death £20 to be spent in Communion plate for the church at Burnsall and £20 to be given to the poor there. Interest of the £100 remaining to my sisters for life and at the death of the survivor the said £100 to niece Margaret Stackhouse. Residue to wife Mary whom I appoint executrix. (Abps' Reg. (Dioc.), vol. 36, fol. 156). M.I. in the chancel of the church at Burnsall, the inscription on which is given in this book.

MATTHEW KNOWLES, M.A.—11th Nov., 1754, clerk; pres. by Fulwar, 4th Baron Craven, on the death of William Carr (Abps' Institution Books). He first appears in the register at Burnsall as "Mr. Know. Curate for Mr. Carr" 6th Feb., 1734-5. He was elected schoolmaster in 1746, when he is described as of Christ's College, Cambridge. He was licensed to the school 7th August, 1747, and as assistant curate, with a salary of £30 a year, 25th May, 1752. On 11th Nov., 1747, he married "Mrs. Mary Carr gentlewoman," probably the sister of the then rector. She was buried at Burnsall 5th April, 1764, and he 20th Nov., 1776. Admon. granted to Martin Knowles, Marmaduke Knowles, Agnes Armistead and Elizabeth Redman, brothers and sisters 5th March, 1777 (Abp. Markham's Reg., fol. 3).

JOSEPH ATWELL SMALL, M.A.—26th June, 1777, clerk; pres. by William, 6th Baron Craven of Hampstead Marshall, on the death of Matthew Knowles (Abps' Institution Books). The son of John Small, of Cirencester, matr. 4th July, 1764, aged 16, and sojourned at Exeter College, Oxford, from that date till 13th July, 1770; was fellow 1770 till he married 1778; B.A. 30th June, 1768; M.A. 2nd July, 1771; B. and D.D. 22nd June, 1781. He was Vicar of Congresbury; elected P.C. of St. James's, Bristol, by the corporation 1781; chaplain to the King 1792; preb. of Gloucester 1794; and died at Bristol 12th Apr., 1814 (Reg. of Exeter Coll., O.H.S., p. 151). He resigned the living of Burnsall in 1796. His name appears three times in the register there—once in July, 1777, and twice in August, 1779.

GEORGE HICKES M.A.—22nd April, 1797; clerk; belonging to the donation of the Archbishop by lapse on the cession of Joseph Atwell Small. He resigned the living (Abps' Institution Books).

WILLIAM BURY, M.A.—16th April, 1839; pres. by William, 2nd Earl of Craven. He had been two months before appointed to the other mediety, and he held both till his death in 1875.

CHARLES HENRY CARLISLE.--13th July, 1875; pres. by George Grimston, 3rd Earl of Craven. On the division of the old parish by Order in Council 21st July, 1876, into the new parishes of Burnsall and Rilston-with-Conistone he chose to remain at Burnsall. He resigned at Michaelmas, 1888, on being appointed to the rectory of Stanton-by-Bridge, in the county of Derby. He died at Stanton 10th April, 1908, aged 79.

The assistant clergy of the parish include, no doubt with many others:—

- 1352 Richard Page, cap.
- 1466 Richard Clerk, chaplain to Henry de Hertlington.
- 1466 Henry Burnsall, cap. (1469, 1471).
- 1469 John Wilkynson, cap.
- 1469 Richard Burnsall, cap. (1471).
- 1469 Henry Thornbergh, cap. (1471, 1472).
- 1469 William Thornbergh.
- 1473 William Deyn, ? chaplain to William de Hertlington.
- 1534 Robert Laylande (1545).
- 1549 William Silson (at Rilston 1556-1568).
- 1568 John Tophan of Cracoe (at Rilston till 1596, when he was appointed Rector of Burnsall).
- 1597 Richard Smithson (at Rilston till 1602).
- 1602 John Tophan, B.A., ordained deacon 24th Apr., 1602; priest 31st May, 1607 (at Rilston till 1661).
- 1619 Mr. Ibbotsone?
- 1647 Robert Inman, M.A., ordained priest 1643; later Rector of High Hoyland, and ejected as a non-juror; later kept a school, and died 1689, aged 66. He may have been the son of Matthew Inman born at Burnsall 1620.
- 1662 Jeremiah Wade (at Rilston).
- 1669 John Barnett (at Rilston).
- 1691 Mr. Parr.
- 1723 William Stackhouse?
- 1723 Henry Wilkinson (at Rilston till 1731).
- 1725 Stephen Robinson (at Rilston till 1732).
- 1729 James Robarts (at Rilston till 1732).
- 1732 Robert Lupton?
- 1732 William Cragg of Rilston (till 1734 for Mr. Carr).
- 1733 William Thompson, B.A. (till 1746 for Mr. Alcock); school-master 1734-46.
- 1731 Matthew Knowles, M.A. (till 1754 for Mr. Carr; lic. to Mr. William Carr 28th July, 1748, at £30 a year); school-master 1746-76; Rector of Burnsall 1754.
- 1752 John Alcock, B.A. (lic. to his uncle, John Alcock, 25th May, 1752, at £30 a year); Rector of Burnsall 1753.
- 1776 Matthew Metcalf (till 1778).

- 1778 Christopher Naylor, M.A. (till 1780 ?); Rector of Linton 1777-80.
 1779 John Wilson (till 1811; lic. to Mr. Hickes 1797 at £35 a year).
 1804 William Lister (at Rilston, 1805).
 1810 John Bentham (at Rilston, 1811).
 1811 Stephen Bland (till 1850; lic. to Mr. Hickes 13th Sept. 1811); schoolmaster 1812-49; Vicar of Kirkby Malham 1811-62; died 1862.

Some notice has been given in the earlier books of the School at Burnsall, which was founded by Sir William Craven, and opened in March, 1603. The following is a list of the schoolmasters :—

- 1603 Laurence Tayler, Master of Skipton Grammar School 1615-9; perhaps longer.
